

Carnegie Mellon University Retention and Graduation Rates

Retention Rate

Students entered Fall 2017	96.7% enrolled second year
----------------------------	----------------------------

Graduation Rates

Students entered Fall 2012	88.8% graduated within six years
----------------------------	----------------------------------

Women	91.2%
-------	-------

Men	87.0%
-----	-------

International students	91.2%
------------------------	-------

Black students	78.5%
----------------	-------

Hispanic students	75.8%
-------------------	-------

Asian students	90.1%
----------------	-------

White students	89.2%
----------------	-------

Multiracial minority students	82.5%
-------------------------------	-------

Multiracial majority students	87.5%
-------------------------------	-------

Students with no race reported	97.4%
--------------------------------	-------

Students who received a Pell Grant during their first year	82.1%
--	-------

Students who received a subsidized Direct Loan but not a Pell Grant during their first year	90.0%
---	-------

Students who received neither a Pell Grant nor a subsidized Direct Loan during their first year	89.9%
---	-------

*Graduation rates are not provided for American Indian students, as that group is too small to yield reliable results.